Graham Fellows Program - Application and Requirements

Course Requirements

It is each student's responsibility to consult with their assigned academic adviser in order to determine how the following course requirements can be most effectively incorporated into their academic plan. There is no guarantee that these courses will fulfill degree requirements in each individual situation. Students are encouraged to explore additional courses offered through the Digital Learning Cooperative. (<https://dlc.psu.edu/>) Each course is worth 3 credits, unless otherwise indicated.

The Graham Fellows Program is continually evolving. Program requirements are subject to change based on industry or University trends. Should a change occur while a student is enrolled in the program, they may choose to be exempt from the new requirement and continue to meet their original requirements. The current list of courses will be updated as new courses are added to help students maximize their time at Penn State. If a student finds a course they believe should be added to the list, they should send, the course code, name, and description to grahamcenter@psu.edu, well in advance, with a brief summary of which category it should be added to and supporting rationale. The Graham Fellows Program leadership and the Penn State York Academic Affairs office will review the course for approval.

Briefly describe the reasons for your interest in the Graham Fellows Program and identify three objectives that you wish to achieve.

How did you hear about the Graham Fellows Program?

Graham Fellows Program Integrity

If I am accepted as a candidate of the Graham Fellows Program, I understand that I must help to create a positive environment in which those of both Penn State and the local community may develop, learn, and grow. I must exhibit admirable behavior as a Graham Candidate by complying with the guidelines of the Penn State Code of Conduct as outlined in the Student Affairs Code of Conduct link <https://studentaffairs.psu.edu/student-accountability/code-procedures/student-code-conduct#:~:text=Act%20with%20integrity%20and%20honesty,decisions%2C%20actions%2C%20and%20their%20consequences>. I understand that if I fail to meet the requirement or the Graham Fellows Program Leadership Committee finds my behavior lacking sound judgment, not promoting a positive environment, or reflects adversely on the Graham Fellows Program or Penn State York, the committee may dismiss me from the Graham Fellows Program. Campus staff will conduct regular review of student academic records to confirm adherence to the Graham Center guidelines and Penn State Code of Conduct. I understand the expectations and requirements of becoming a Graham Candidate.
